Green Folders

Our weekly green folders contain vital information for you regarding your child's weekly progress on daily assignments, as well as work to be corrected and returned, and of course the weekly newsletter. Please help your child maximize their potential by being attentive to the folder coming home on Monday, and ensuring that it returns on Friday.

Cursive All the Way

We have completed learning all 26 letters in cursive. Starting on Monday, November 2, 2020, all work students turn in will be required to be completed neatly in cursive. Students will now lose points on assignments for their lack of quality penmanship.

Up-Coming Home Projects Due Soon

Students have two remaining home-based projects to start off second quarter. They are culminating projects from lessons learned in first quarter.

Animals, Animals – Students need to implement the lessons learned this past quarter in art. They are to paint an animal based on their choice, using cool and warm colors, and negative, using the techniques of Eric Carle. See the example above. This assignment is due November 13, 2020. A Rubric was sent home.

Hinds Feet on High Places Movie – students need to work together to create, outside of school, a short film based on the chapters of the book, Hinds Feet on Places. This project is due November 20. A Rubric was sent home.
